

UNITED NATIONS

Rethinking sustainable urban transport and mobility to meet the challenges of a new era

24 February 2015 10.00-13.00 Salle VII, Palais des Nations, Geneva

Hour	Topic
10:00-10:15	Opening and welcome Christian Friis Bach, Executive Secretary, UNECE Eva Molnar, Director, Transport Division, UNECE Matthias Rinderknecht, Chair and Moderator of policy segment; Chair, Transport, Health and Environment Pan-European Programme (THE PEP) International Affairs, Federal Office of Transport, Switzerland
10:15-10:30	Keynote Speech Nicolas Meilhan, Principal Consultant Energy & Transportation Practices, Frost & Sullivan, France
10:30-10:40	Q and A
10:40-11:25	Nikolay Asaul, Deputy Minister of Transport of the Russian Federation <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - The role of the -- Federal Ministry of Transport in dealing with the fast-paced challenges of growing Russian cities and the case of Moscow Urban Transport Janos Monigl, Chief Engineer for transport system planning FŐMTERV, Hungary <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Integrative tools and solutions in urban and regional public transport – from the perspective of Budapest Vojko Obersnel, M.S., Mayor, City of Rijeka, Croatia <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Improved rail and motorway hinterland connections to ports can boost city renewal: the case of Rijeka Jos Arts, Rijkswaterstaat Directorate Traffic and Water Management, Netherlands <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Networking for Urban Vitality: Building a network for integration of multi-modal infrastructure and spatial planning: lessons from Utrecht and Rotterdam
11:25-11:40	Q and A
11:40-12:00	Coffee Break
12:00-12:40	Yuri Ilyin, Vice-Mayor, City of Almaty, Kazakhstan <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - When decaying public transport was faced with rapid motorization: the case of Almaty Gregory Dimitriadis, Chairman of the Board & CEO, Athens Urban Transport Organisation (OASA), Greece <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Impatient passenger demand for modern, reliable and affordable public transport amidst economic crisis: the case of Athens Blaise Hochstrasser, Directeur général à la Direction Générale des Transports de l'Etat de Genève, Switzerland <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Geneva Public Transport Company meeting the mobility needs both of the city and the French neighbourhood Scheduled interventions by: Isabelle Dorliat-Pouzet, Sous-Préfète de Saint-Julien-en-Genevois, Sous-préfecture de Saint-Julien-en-Genevois Robert Stein, Engineer, CEO, CargoCap GmbH, Germany
12:40-12:55	Q and A
12:55-13:00	Conclusion

