Submitted by the informal group of experts on driving permits (Belgium, Brazil, Canada, France, Luxembourg, Russian Federation,
United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, Fédération
Internationale de l'Automobile, (FIA) and the International Organization for Standardization (ISO))

WP.1, at the seventy-ninth session approved the amalgamated approach combining elements of the three options (a), (b) and (c) in ECE/TRANS/WP.1/2018/1/Rev.1, as documented in ECE/TRANS/WP.1/2018/1/Rev.2:

- A domestic driving permit (DDP) compliant with Annex 6 (of the 1968 Convention) and with minimum security features which are recognised at international level, or
- An international driving permit (IDP) compliant with Annex 7 (of the 1968 Convention) and with minimum security features recognised at international level.
- Countries who wish to retain a DDP not compliant with Annex 6 will have to issue an IDP compliant with Annex 7 to drivers who wish to travel internationally.
- To facilitate this approach, a change in the 1968 Convention is needed. At the moment drivers need a compliant DDP and a compliant IDP at the same time when travelling internationally; this would need to be removed.
- A DDP not compliant with Annex 6 could only be used domestically.

This document describes the proposed amendments to Article 41 and Annex 6 of the 1968
Convention relating to the DDP recognised at international level and Annex 7 of the 1968
Convention relating to the IDP recognised at international level in accordance with the Report of the Seventy-Ninth Session of WP.1 (paragraph 16 of ECE/TRANS/WP.1/169).
Proposed Amendments to 1968 Convention

ARTICLE 41

(b) Contracting Parties undertake to ensure that driving permits are issued only after verification by the competent authorities that the driver possesses the required knowledge and skills; the persons authorized to check if drivers have the necessary knowledge and skills must have appropriate qualifications; the contents and procedure of both theoretical and practical exams are regulated by national legislation;

(c) Domestic legislation must lay down requirements for obtaining a driving permit in accordance with the provisions of Annex 6. In particular, the requirements shall specify the minimum age for holding a permit, the medical conditions to be fulfilled and the conditions for passing the theoretical and practical exams;

(d) Nothing in this Convention shall be construed as preventing Contracting Parties or subdivisions thereof from requiring driving permits for other power-driven vehicles that have not been incorporated in Annex 6;

(e) Contracting Parties of which the domestic driving permit is not in conformance with Annex 6 shall issue an international driving permit conforming to the provisions of Annex 7 on condition that such international driving permit is linked to the domestic driving permit in such manner that the international driving permit is forthwith cancelled upon a suspension or cancellation of the domestic driving permit by a competent authority of the of such Contracting Party.

(e) The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to learner-driver permits.

3. (a) Domestic legislation shall limit the period of validity of a domestic driving permit. The period of validity of a domestic driving permit shall be at least five years but no more than ten years. An international driving permit shall have a validity period of either no more than three years after the date of issue or until the date of expiry of the domestic driving permit, whichever is earlier;
(b) Contracting parties may limit the period of validity set out in paragraph 3(a) of permits issued to novice drivers for any licence category in order to apply specific measures to such drivers, aimed at improving road safety;

(c) Contracting parties may limit the period of validity set out in paragraph 3(a) of individual driving licences for any licence category if it is found necessary to apply an increased frequency of medical checks or other specific measures such as restrictions for traffic offenders.

4. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs 1 and 2:

(a) Where the validity of the driving permit is made subject by special endorsement to the condition that the holder shall wear certain devices or that the vehicle shall be equipped in a certain way to take account of the driver’s disability, the permit shall not be recognised as valid unless those conditions are observed;

(b) Contracting Parties may refuse to recognise the validity in their territories of driving permits held by persons under eighteen years of age;

An international driving permit in conformance with the provisions of Annex 7 shall be issued only to the holder of a domestic driving permit of which the format is not in conformance with the provisions of Annex 6 but the holder has fulfilled the minimum conditions laid down in this Convention to be issued with such driving permit. An international driving permit shall only be issued by the Contracting Party in whose territory the holder has his normal residence and which issued the domestic driving permit recognise; it shall not be valid for use in that territory.

6. The provisions of this Article shall not require Contracting Parties:

(a) To recognise the validity of domestic driving permits issued in the territory of another Contracting Party to persons who had their normal residence in their territories at the time of such issue or whose normal residence has been transferred to their territories since such issue;

(b) To recognise the validity of domestic driving permits issued to drivers whose normal residence at the time of such issue was not in the territory in which the permit was issued or who since such issue have transferred their residence to another territory.
