Paragraph 2.4., amend to read:

"2.4. “Effective anchorage” is the latest rigid part of the vehicle, seat or belt anchorage, contacted by a flexible or adjustable (in at least both longitudinal and transversal plans) part of the safety-belt, when adapted to the user’s morphology. It does not necessarily correspond to the real anchorage.”